Happy Independence Day!

As we celebrate our Nation's birthday, we wish a very happy and safe holiday to all, and special thanks to all who serve in the U.S. military protecting our freedom and all who serve in our safety forces protecting our communities.

Become a Friend... of the Cleveland Police Foundation and Support Our Mission

Our mission is to strengthen the bonds between the Cleveland Division of Police and the citizens it serves, working together to make our city safer for all. To accomplish that goal, the CPF works proactively to support and invest in programs, community policing initiatives and engagement, events that foster stronger relationships between citizens and police officers, and police charities.

Your participation will make a direct impact on the future of our community and give you a sense of pride knowing you are an official FRIEND of the Cleveland Police Foundation.

Slamtana Charity Bowling Night
July 20

Cleveland Indians first baseman Carlos Santana will host a charity bowling night Thursday, July 20 at the Corner Alley in Downtown Cleveland. Santana is dedicated to making a positive impact locally and giving back to the community. Joined by a few of his teammates, he looks forward to interacting with fans at this fun-filled evening. Besides bowling, there will be autograph and photo sessions, a silent auction, a raffle and prizes. This event benefits the Cleveland Police Foundation, Cleveland Clinic Children's and the Boys & Girls Club of Cleveland. To purchase tickets and for more information go to www.slamtana.org or contact Ulises.cabrera@octagon.com.

July 2017 Police Officer of the Month: Edward Lentz, Lieutenant, 5th Neighborhood Police District

Lieutenant Edward Lentz has truly grasped the philosophy of community policing and understands the importance of helping citizens in need. Evidence of this is his assistance to the Bureau of Community Policing and the Cleveland Police Foundation (CPF). They hosted a basketball game between officers and the students at St. Francis School - the game being held to improve the relationship between the police and the community. The Lieutenant also led officers to engage the students of MC2 STEM High School during a community picnic. He then brought the officers to the school to provide a lesson in the history of policing in Cleveland and get better acquainted. Read more...

CPF Awarded Grant To Prevent Accidental Crib Deaths

In an effort to alleviate infant sleep related fatalities, the CPF is partnering with the Division of Police and the Cuyahoga County Board of Health on a pilot program known as "Cops & Cribs."

The Cops & Cribs grant was awarded to fund the program's implementation in the City's 4th and 5th Neighborhood Police Districts. Funding for 40 cribs is expected soon and will enable police officers to distribute them into at-risk homes while also delivering a safe sleep message. A training video is provided for the officers to increase their awareness of risk factors and what to look for in the course of their duties.

This crucial initiative will help to strengthen the bonds between police officers and citizens—and most importantly—save infant lives.

Patrol Officers and Pierre's Ice Cream Chill the City!
On June 11, 2017, the Cleveland Division of Police debuted the “Let’s Chill Together” ice cream truck which will be out and about this summer in the neighborhoods of the city. Officers will be handing out free ice cream to kids and taking time to visit all summer long. This amazing project was made possible by the Cleveland Police Foundation and by Cleveland’s own Pierre’s Ice Cream, who donated all of the ice cream for the whole season. A big thanks to Pierre’s for making this project come to life! Watch for the truck on your street or at your rec center soon.

Somali Refugee Becomes Cleveland Patrol Officer
Just 15 years ago, Cleveland Patrol Officer Maliko Hamadi was in a refugee camp in Somalia. Now his second home is the Second District. Hamadi heard of the welcoming opportunities in Cleveland and the refugee awareness training of the CPD and decided to make Cleveland his home. Samantha Peddicord, CPD Refugee Awareness trainer, differentiates refugee awareness training from other types of diversity training. She said it helps law enforcement to better understand the refugees and encourages community involvement. Hamadi and his partner, Miguel Gonzalez, speak eight languages between them, and love taking time to walk and talk in Recently I got to join some of my old friends from the Cleveland Police Citizens Police Academy Alumni. We met at Edgewater Park Marina for a visit with the C.P.D. Marine Patrol. The C.P.C.P.A.A. was started in January 2006 by Sgt. Chas Lane and me with the goal of continuing the education of those who attended the Citizens Police Academy. This core of dedicated citizens meets monthly fall through spring. Sgt. Tim Higgins not only sets up road trips but also schedules interesting speakers for the meetings.

I asked long time member of the C.P.C.P.A.A. Linda Lewis why she joined the group and she stated, "I joined for the same reason a lot of people joined and that was to continue learning about law enforcement and to try and help support them." As for the visit with the Marine Patrol, it was a very interesting morning. They discussed the equipment they use, answered questions, and took us for an enjoyable ride on Lake Erie.

The Citizens Police Academy holds classes yearly on both the east side and west side. To reserve your spot, contact Officer Tim Riley at 216-623-5080. Then by all means, after completing the class, join the Alumni group to continue to learn about the C.P.D. and make new friends while doing so.

Celebrating Fatherhood and Literacy

The Cleveland Police Foundation, Community Policing, and Michael McDonald from Cleveland Community Relations teamed up with the Urban Kutz Barbershop for a special Father's Day Read. This was an event that celebrated fatherhood and literacy, two important aspects of a strong community. The cops, kids, and fathers talked about safety, the importance of literacy, and those important topics that always surround a working barber shop. Everyone was treated to Jack Frost Donuts, a police gift bag with coloring book, crayons, and a stuffed animal, a book, and last but not least Honey Hut Ice Cream courtesy of Bruce Page. Thank you to all the fathers, children, police officers, and supporters of this event. A big thanks to Lamont Bell from Urban Kutz and WKYC Channel 3-Cleveland’s Margaret Bernstein for your support of literacy in Cleveland!

Vintage Emergency Vehicle Show

Vehicles converged and crowds surged on a picture-perfect day for the 6th Annual Vintage Emergency Vehicle Show. Presented by the Cleveland Police Historical Society & Museum, over 30 vehicles came from California to Maryland and all parts in between. First-time show participant PO Dave Casey drove 500 miles in a Chevy Camaro police cruiser, sponsored by the Salem County, New Jersey FOP. Organizer and retired Police Officer Tony Colon stated, "Success! People visited the police museum the entire day. The response was great!"

NAACP Freedom Fund Dinner

Thanks to the Cleveland Division of Police for partnering with the Cleveland Police Foundation and supporting the NAACP Freedom Fund Dinner! It was truly beneficial in promoting positive relationships in the community.

Fraud - Investment Scams

Part 3 in our series on fraud

Scammers wasted no time in 2017 redoubling their efforts to bilk investors. Their basic formula remains the same: dream up a bogus get-rich-quick investment and persuade susceptible people to buy in. But in the end, the promises are empty, and the sophisticated sales techniques are just the trappings of well worn cons. READ MORE...
