CPF POLICE OFFICER OF THE MONTH, OCTOBER 2017

According to his immediate supervisors, PO Antonio Andino is an exemplary police officer who engages in community policing on a daily basis. Part of his approach to policing the community is accomplished in a unique way. Before becoming an officer he worked as a barber – and now donates his time to the kids in the 4th District by giving them professional haircuts because he feels in order to excel in school you have to look sharp. He gave haircuts to students at Charles Dickens Elementary during a recent community event, “Literacy in the Hood,” and all the kids left with confidence and smiles on their faces.

When asked about PO Andino and his efforts, Lt. Brian McEntee of the 4th District stated, “He is an excellent officer and besides donating his time to giving haircuts, he likes to engage the community and promotes citizen and police officer interaction. He is a true community policing officer and is an invaluable asset to the Cleveland Division of Police.” For his commitment to the community and especially to our children the Cleveland Police Foundation is honored to recognize PO Antonio Andino as the Police Officer of the Month for October 2017.

In the News Around Town

TRIBUTE TO THE BLUE CELEBRATION A GREAT SUCCESS

The Hofbräuhaus Cleveland on Thursday, September 28, 2017 was the scene of the time, where a sellout crowd honored excellence in community service.

Celebrity emcees Mike & Sharon Hargrove added their charm and wit to the festive atmosphere while everyone enjoyed great food, entertainment and winning scores of amazing auction items.

Honorary Chairs Chief Calvin Williams, Retired Chief Ed Kovacic and State Representative Tom Patton joined with Mayor Frank Jackson, Safety Director Mike McGrath and many other dignitaries in recognizing:

- Man of the Year, James F. Doyle
- Police Officer of the Year, Sgt. Mitchell Sheehan
- Community Service Award, the Cops, Kids and Christmas Program
- CPF Founders Award, Charles W. Lane, Jr.

In addition to the annual award recipients, 18 Police Officers of the Month were honored for their efforts in giving back to the community.

Congratulations to all who were recognized, and many thanks to all who came out to support them, the Division of Police, and the Cleveland Police Foundation.

CLEVELAND POLICE FOUNDATION ELECTS NEW SECRETARY

The Executive Committee of the Board of Directors of the Cleveland Police Foundation has a new member. Nancy Feighan, who has served on the board for over three years, was elected to the Secretary position.

Nancy has been an active member of the board, and serves as Co-Chair of the Community Engagement and Tribute to the Blue Celebration Committees.

When elected, Nancy remarked, "I appreciate the confidence that my fellow board members have placed in me and look forward to continuing to work toward helping the Cleveland Police Foundation succeed in its mission."

THIRD DISTRICT COMMUNITY SERVICE AWARDS

The Third District Community Relations Committee Awards program was held September 2017 at the Fatima Family Center. The Master of Ceremonies once again this year was TV Channel 19's personality Harry Boomer who assisted in handing out well deserved awards to police and citizens in the Third District community.

Also included in these awards were the Community Service Plaques Bob Guttu had the pleasure of distributing to an officer, individual and business. Detective Anthony Spencer was our officer honoree, Chia-Min Chen, the City of Cleveland's Asian Liaison was recognized as an individual honoree, and Matt Thornicroft accepted an award honoring Pierre's Ice Cream. On hand to honor the recipients were Mayor Frank Jackson, Chief Calvin Williams, Safety Director Mike McGrath and numerous other city dignitaries. The evening concluded with a delicious dinner and all in all it was a very special event for not only the recipients and their families, but those who attended to honor these outstanding individuals.
