Honoring Fallen Officer

Hundreds of officers from throughout Ohio and western Pennsylvania joined together in honoring Girard PD PO Justin Leo, killed in the line of duty on 10/21/17. Included in the contingent were members of the Cleveland Police Pipes & Drums, Honor Guard, Mounted and Motorcycle Units who joined the community in paying respects and offering condolences to Justin's family, friends and coworkers. Faith-Based Security Summit and Emergency Planning Workshop

November 20

Faith-Based Security Summit – Greater Cleveland An Emergency Planning Workshop for Faith-Based Leaders & Executives Monday, November 20, 2017

Accidents • Active shooter situation • Biological contamination • Bomb • Chemical spill • Civil unrest
Criminal activity • Curfews • Data theft/loss • Disease outbreak • Explosion • Food shortage • Pandemic flu
Power outage • Radiation incident • Reputational challenges • Safety issues • Workplace violence

While many faith-based institutions are prepared to handle petty crime, most are not prepared to respond or mitigate more serious threats. This half-day seminar is intended to bring together faith-based ministries and other places of worship to help foster a culture of resiliency.

CPF Police Officer of the Month, November 2017

While on patrol in the Fourth District, PO Vickie Przybylski responded to a call for a stolen bicycle. Upon arrival, she learned that the bike belonged to a five-year-old child, who had just received it the week before. Przybylski interviewed the family and then took action. She got on her phone, called a local Walmart store, and explained the situation. A short time later, Walmart made the decision to donate a brand new bike to the young child, made happy once again! 2017 Gun Buyback Another Success!

Citizens turned in a total of 98 firearms in exchange for $100 gift cards from community partners Dave's Supermarkets, Target, and TrueNorth Shell. The firearms consisted of 72 handguns and 26 long guns (rifles and shotguns, including one assault rifle and several sawed-off shotguns and semi-automatic rifles). There were also 18 very real-looking replica, BB and pellet guns that were turned in... many which were very difficult to discern if real or not without careful examination. Given past tragedies, we all realize the benefit of also removing them from the street. Read More...
